Minutes: Minutes of the April 11 meeting were properly approved (motion – Coleff; second – Neely).

Treasurer's Report – Larry Johnson presented the April Treasurer's Report with a monthly gain of $292.95. The report was properly approved (motion – Miller; second – Rizzo)

Newsletter: Nicholas Coleff reported the May/June newsletter was mailed last Thursday. We now have 20 receiving the newsletter by email.

Activity: Pam Hudson reported the Derby Dance was a success making a profit of almost $500 for the club. The next dance is the Fiesta Dance on June 24 being chaired by Jackie Bates.

Membership: Tommy Radcliffe presented the following for membership: Debra Lively, Joe Keidel, Jean Keidel, Barbara Claire, Sarah Armstrong, Martin Dolle, Walter Cox, Connie Remann, Rusty Fowler, Karen Ware, Catherine Luttmer, Ron Compton, Martha Kelly, Janice Harbin and Robert Husband. The members were properly approved (motion – Hudson; second Coleff). Tommy reported there were 329 members as of 12/31/04, 417 as of 12/31/05 and 329 before the above members were added.

Music: No music purchased in April. Mike Hall requested the board to change the music committee authority from $50/month to $600/year. The motion was properly approved (motion – Radcliffe; second Stenberg). It was also properly approved to allow membership to borrow CDs by depositing $50 with Larry Johnson. The $50 will be returned to the member if the CDs are returned within 2 weeks. (Motion - Miller; second - M. Hall)

Boogie in the Bluegrass III – Mike Hall reported there would be a meeting May 16th at the Clarion. A new flyer is now available.

Old business: Jim Brown has secured a second storage unit for $847 per year. The other storage unit costs $825 per year. The DJ equipment is stored in the new unit while the old unit is used for decorations and other club possessions.

New Business: Pam Hudson reported Glenn Moody is returning home on May 10.

It was reported the basic dance instruction was not consistent. Herky responded by saying he was giving direction to each instructor before their assigned month begins and would make certain each instructor was following those expectations.

Next Meeting will be June 13 at the City of Sycamore meeting room at 7:00 PM.
A special executive session of the Executive Committee will be held at the City of Sycamore meeting room at 7:00 on May 24.
